This college was established in 1996-1997. Bhabasaheb Keshavrao Kasar the founder of Bhaunaj Samaj Shikshan Prasarak Mandal is a "Man of vision and action" who played an instrumental role to open this college. He devoted his life in serving the society and economically backward communities by the way of providing educational facilities. We are very proud to say that college is having facility to teach at graduate courses like Computer Science, Chemistry, Hindi, Sociology, Geography and Marathi and to teach English in Hindi. The college also runs Y.C.M.O.U. Center.

ABOUT THE GROUND OF THE CONFERENCE

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar (14 April 1891 to 06 Dec. 1956)

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar was an Indian jurist, economist, politician and social reformer who inspired the Indian Buddhist movement and campaigned against social discrimination against the untouchables. He also supported the rights of women and labour. He was independent India's first law minister and the principal architect of the Constitution of India.

Dr. Ambedkar was a prolific writer earning a law degree and doctorate from Columbia university and the London School of Economics and gained a reputation as a scholar for his research in law, economics, professor and lawyer. His life was marked by his political activities. He became prominent in campaigning and negotiations for India's independence. Publishing journals, advocating political and social freedom for dalits and contributing significantly to the establishment of the state of India are some of his major achievements.

Dr. Ambedkar converted to Buddhism, initiating mass conversion of Dalits. In 1990 the Bharat Ratna, India's highest civilian award, was posthumously conferred upon him. Ambedkar's legacy includes numerous memorials and depictions in popular culture. Ambedkar wrote many books on social issues. He wrote Buddha and his Dhamma, Hindu Code Bill for Indian women and main book for India is the Indian Constitution.
